

Author's Bio

When Lyn learned in a seminary class the origins of the Magi of the Christmas story, and how they were connected with Israel six centuries earlier, she was stunned. The true story was far more awesome than our traditional story.

She and her son Joshua teamed up to bring this Biblical account to the whole family. She lives in Denver and has two other grown children, Jenny and Jonathan, who also helped bring this story to print.

As a graphic artist, she designed the layout and did the production on this book. She and Joshua developed the design of the cover.

Who Were the Magi?

Lyn Benson
illustrated by Joshua Benson

"...during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem..."

- ▶ How did the Magi know about a promised redeemer who would come out of Israel?
- ▶ How did they know a certain sign in the heavens would announce his arrival ~ and when?
- ▶ How did they end up in a stable in the middle of nowhere?
~ Or did they?

Discover the answers to these mysteries as you travel in the caravan with the Magi on their journey. You will hear their story, which takes you back to the time of the prophet Daniel, an Israelite captive in ancient Babylon, who won the favor of the cruel and ruthless King Nebuchadnezzar.

Find out how Daniel's destiny became intertwined with that of the Magi.

Learn what happened after they found the promised child, and why their search did not end until three decades later, with the explosive news that shook the world and explained the purpose for his coming.
